SPORT

Considering everything Lisle has to offer, it's astonishing that it also boasts one of the most prestigious sports facilities in the country. The Village of Lisle-Benedictine University Sports Complex houses a football stadium with an Olympic-sized competition track, stadium lighting, a premium Sportexe synthetic turf-surface and adjustable goalposts. The field is also equipped for soccer and lacrosse and offers seating for over 3,000 guests with additional options for capacity to exceed 7000. The Sports Complex also has a baseball and softball field with a natural surface, 1,000 fixed chairback seats and picnic seating.

This remarkable jewel enables Lisle to host your major sporting and outdoor exhibition events, all within the same community's one limited service and three outstanding full-service hotels, which feature high-end amenities and conference facilities.

VENUES

Lisle hotels offer beautiful settings and a broad array of options to accommodate events from small and intimate to large. The Hyatt Regency offers a permanent outdoor pavilion, not to mention the nearby DuPage Forest Preserves, perfect for family gatherings and picnics. Guests may also enjoy a round of golf at Riverbend Golf Club or Seven Bridges golf course.

Benedictine University's newest addition – Goodwin Hall provides cutting edge amenities including a 600-seat auditorium for presentations and lectures. In addition to numerous classrooms, labs and study spaces, Goodwin Hall includes a Starbucks Café on the second floor; 150-seat and 80-seat seminar rooms on the third floor; and banquet facility and terrace event space on the fourth floor.

The most unique venue in Lisle is The Ginkgo Restaurant at The Morton Arboretum, which is located in the Arboretum's Visitors Center. The view is stunning from The Ginkgo Restaurant's floor-to-ceiling windows, which overlook the sycamore trees at Meadow Lake. While dining on the outdoor terrace, guests will experience the breathtaking views of The Arboretum's award winning gardens.
